DR. SWAYNE, DEAR SIR:

I feel myself bound to give a certificate of the cure of one of the most aggravated cases of diseased Lungs, which has ever been placed upon record. It was that of Valentine Chapman, who was sent to this Institution under the care of a very respectable Physician, who, after a long and faithful attendance, gave him out as beyond the reach of the healing art. Having heard of the astonishing effects of your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry in curing Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Difficulty of Breathing, pain and soreness of the Breast, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the Lungs, I concluded to get a bottle at my own expense, which gave some relief, being encouraged from that circumstance, I followed it up until a perfect cure was performed, and the man returned to his daily labor.

ROBERT GLENN, Steward of the Alma House, near Frankford.

P. S. The Steward of the above Institution is a man of undoubted integrity, well known in the neighborhood of Philadelphia, and would be pleased to give any information in relation to the above case.

Remember Dr. SWAYNE'S Office, N. W. corner of 8th and Race street, Philadelphia.

BE CAUTIONED to ask for the original Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, as all other preparations from this valuable tree are fictitious and counterfeit. Prepared only by Dr. Swayne, whose office has been removed to the N. W. Corner of 8th and Race streets, Philadelphia.

ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES.

IN looking around upon mankind, the philanthropist cannot but find too much to lament. The various ills to which his race are subject, and which are daily and hourly hurrying thousands to the grave, and some, too, in the morning of life, when the hopes of parents and friends seemed budding into maturity, are sufficient to awaken the liveliest sympathies of those whose hearts are not callous to every sympathetic feeling. When by the haggard look, the hurried breathings and the hollow cough of those with whom he has been in the habit of holding sweet intercourse, perhaps of his own blood relations, he sees the spark of life dimly glimmering or just ready to go out, how does his longing desire increase that the mind of man, omnipotent almost as it is, could devise some means, by which, under Providence, the consequences of these ills might be stayed; his better nature becomes excited, and he is stimulated to his task in view of the mighty results which may flow from his toils. Thus we see the market crowded with nostrums whose virtues, if the half of which were true, would cause death itself to die and man become immortal. In presenting the Panacea of the Dandelion and Tomato to the public, we would say that we do not claim for it, that it shall be a specific for all the diseases to which the human frame is subject, but for all for which it is recommended. It has for its recommendation the sanction of the experience of the most distinguished and enlightened physicians on the globe.

The proprietors deem it unnecessary to state the cost to which they have been at, or care which has been taken to select, in the first place, the best articles, and then to devise the means by which their whole strength may be given to the public. They ask for it only that most of attention to which the sick and suffering in the community may deem it entitled. They are willing that its healing properties should be its only recommendation, and that the relief and health which is sure to come to the suffering and diseased after its use should proclaim its virtues; they intend, and have made, such arrangements that it shall have an extensive sale, and that they may receive a share of its healing benefits. The Panacea is composed, as all must be aware, who know anything of the Dandelion, TOMATO, and SARSAPARILLA, its principal ingredients, from the most innocent, as well as the most efficacious plants in the vegetable kingdom. There is scarcely an individual who is not well acquainted with the efficacy of the DANDELION, TOMATO, and SARSAPARILLA, and who do not know that in those diseases in which a complete and radical change in the composition of the blood, in the secretions of the Liver, and in the formation of all the solid parts of the body are regarded, that there are no remedies which will for a moment compare with them; in fact, in all those regions in which liver diseases are prevalent, or where, from the nature of the climate, any impurities of the blood exist, the Dandelion grows in great quantities, and is eagerly sought after. It seems from the great abundance of the Dandelion in all the regions where such diseases or any that flow from them exist, that it was the design of the Creator that, where the malady was found, the remedy also might be obtained. They are therefore offered to the public with full confidence for the relief of those diseases for which the articles themselves are so often recommended by all our first physicians.

Such as Headache, Dizziness, Sleeplessness, Noises in the head, bad taste in the mouth, nausea or sickness of the stomach, loss of appetite, indigestion, dyspepsia, fever and ague, pain after eating, sour stomach, heartburn, jaundice, costiveness, determination of the blood to the head, piles, coughs, colds, pain in the side, back, limbs, and joints, rheumatism, and all chronic diseases, scrofulous humors, skin rheum, and cutaneous eruptions of the skin, general debility, &c.

Druggists and others in different parts of the country desiring an agency, or quantities of the article to be sold by them on commission, can be supplied immediately by addressing, post paid, a line to the proprietors, Messrs. Ransom & Stevens, No. 325 Washington street. In a short time it will be advertised in the leading papers in the country.

Prepared and sold at wholesale and retail by the Proprietors, RANSOM & STEVENS, Amory Hall buildings, 325 Washington street, second door north of West street, Boston, Mass.

Also for sale by the duly appointed agents throughout the country: T. W. DYOTT & SONS, No. 143 North Second Street, Wholesale agents for Philadelphia and New York.

For sale at the bookstore of R. FARNHAM, corner of 11th st. and Penn. avenue, and at the most respectable Drug Stores in the District. jy 20

From the Boston Daily Mail.

A REALLY GOOD ARTICLE.—Always anxious to benefit our readers in every possible way, we would now recommend to their notice an article prepared by Ransom & Stevens, Druggists, which is fully deserving of confidence and every way worthy to be relied on. We mean the Dandelion and Tomato Panacea. Compounded from nine of the best medicines produced in the vegetable kingdom, the Dandelion, Tomato, and Sarsaparilla forming the chief ingredients, which are well known and universally admitted to contain the most healthful properties the science of medicine has yet discovered. We called at the store of these gentlemen yesterday and had the pleasure of perusing letters, some of which were from Physicians of the highest respectability, and others from gentlemen of undoubted integrity, all speaking in the highest terms of the good effects of the medicine. They also hold in their possession, innumerable certificates from persons, some of whom we are acquainted, and in whose word we can place the fullest confidence of the wonderful cures performed by its use; such as Asthma, Erysipelas, Dyspepsia, Salt Rheum, Chronic Diseases, Rheumatism, Scrofula, and for all impurities of the blood, and from our own knowledge and confidence in the gentlemen who prepare the medicine and the trial we have had of its virtues, we have no hesitation in recommending it as one of the best alternatives and purifiers of the system to be had. For anything in the apothecary line, we would recommend the store of these gentlemen, 325 Washington street, as inferior to none in this city; their high moral worth and strict integrity being sufficient guaranty to the public against any attempt at imposition.

In copying the above from the Mail, we are happy in being able to endorse every word of it, having tried the Dandelion and Tomato Panacea ourselves with the happiest effects. The proprietors are really deserving of patronage, and we are sure that success will crown their efforts. Give them a call at their store, Amory Hall buildings, 325 Washington street, second door north of West street.—Daily Times.

COAL! COAL!! COAL!!!

THE SUBSCRIBERS have now on hand, and will continue to receive, a superior article of ANTHRACITE COAL from John L. Butler & Co. This coal is mined near Wilkesbarre, Pennsylvania, and is known in this city as the celebrated Butler Coal, which has been highly recommended by all who have used it, as will be seen by the highly respectable certificates annexed:

I used coal last winter, which I purchased of Messrs. John Pettibone & Co., and it gave entire satisfaction. W. W. SEATON.

PATENT OFFICE, May 31, 1844.

Gentlemen: The Coal that you furnished for the Patent Office during this last spring proved very excellent; and I used the same kind which was delivered at my house. It proved in both cases highly satisfactory. H. L. ELLSWORTH.

Messrs. J. PETTIBONE & Co., Washington.

OFFICE SECRETARY SENATE, June 1, 1844.

Messrs Pettibone & Co. furnished a small quantity of Coal for the furnaces of the north portion of the Capitol, and it was reported to be of a good quality. They also furnished at a reasonable price for my own private use, during the last winter, several tons of the same kind of Coal, and I was entirely satisfied with it, finding but little dust from its use, and but little else remaining than ashes, there being scarcely any clinker left. W. HICKEY.

WASHINGTON, June 25th, 1844.

Gentlemen: Having used your Coal, I can cheerfully recommend it as being of superior quality for easy ignition and culinary purposes. Respectfully, WM SKIRVING.

MAY 31, 1844.

I purchased Butler Coal from John Pettibone & Co. last fall and found it a very superior article. W. LENOX.

MAY 25, 1844.

I purchased last year, from Messrs. John Pettibone & Co., what he called the Butler Coal. I never used a finer article of fuel. When I can find the Butler Coal, I shall not inquire for any other kind, as I am persuaded there is none better. JAMES HOBAN.

DANVILLE, Penn. August 2, 1843.

I have bought of Messrs. Butler & Co. some hundred tons of their Anthracite Coal, and sold to persons for different uses, and used considerable of it myself. For burning in stoves and grates, I do pronounce it as good Coal as I ever have made use of, and every person to whom I have sold the Coal say they have never used anything they liked better. JOHN C. GRIER.

We can produce many other certificates in accord; and with the above. J. PETTIBONE & Co. N. B. Persons who want their Coal low, will please send in their orders immediately, as it will advance in price, owing to the great demand for manufacturing purposes. We can furnish at short notice any quantity of Hickory, Oak, and Pine Wood, at a small advance, for cash.
